4. Special Initial Clothing Allowances--Authorized Navy Personnel Serving with Marine Corps Units. This paragraph provides clarification and amplification of MCO P10120.28 (Individual Clothing Regulations).

a. Special Initial Utility Uniform Allowance

(1) The Special Initial Utility Uniform Allowance is intended for authorized Navy personnel who routinely wear the utility uniform during the performance of their work while assigned to Marine Corps units.

(2) Navy officers may purchase and wear the utility uniform at their option and expense.

ENCLOSURE (1)

(3) The following Navy enlisted personnel, both Regular and Reserves on extended active duty, permanently assigned, or assigned on a TAD basis for augmentation purposes due to contingency operational commitments to Marine Corps FMF units, may be issued the Special Initial Utility Uniform Allowance: Counselors, Dental Technicians, Disbursing Clerks, Hospital Corpsmen, Personnelmen, Religious Program Specialists, and Yeomen.

(4) Authorized Navy enlisted personnel will receive only one entitlement to this allowance during any one period of continuous assignment to such duty.

(5) Authorized Navy enlisted personnel who have received this allowance will not be authorized a subsequent allowance of the same items upon assignment to a new Marine Corps unit if less than 3 years have elapsed between assignments (i.e. there must be a 3-year break in service with the Marine Corps in order to receive a new Special Initial Utility Uniform Allowance).

(6) The Special Initial Utility Uniform Allowance which may be furnished Navy personnel under the provisions of this Bulletin consist of the following items in the quantities indicated:

- 1/ Only two issued to inspector-instructor staff personnel.
- 2/ Not issued to chief petty officers or personnel who are not eligible for the Special Initial Service Uniform Allowance described in paragraph 4.b, following.
- 3/ Only four issued to inspector-instructor staff personnel.

b. Special Initial Service Uniform Allowance

(1) The Special Initial Service Uniform Allowance is intended for Navy Hospital Corpsmen, Dental Technicians, and Religious Program Specialists, both Regular and Reserves on extended active duty, who are permanently assigned to Marine Corps units (other than FMF combat-committed units). Those assigned to FMF combat-committed units will receive the Special Initial Utility Uniform Allowance only.

(2) Navy officers may purchase and wear the Marine Corps service uniform at their option and expense.

(3) Authorized Navy enlisted personnel will be given a 60-day option period in which to elect/not elect to wear the Marine Corps service uniforms. Those who elect to wear and maintain Marine Corps service uniforms will be provided the Special Initial Service Uniform Allowance. Navy personnel who receive this allowance will be required to wear these uniforms as directed for the duration of their continuous service with a Marine Corps organization and will abide by Marine Corps uniform and grooming regulations. Those who elect not to wear Marine Corps service uniforms will wear their Navy service uniforms, when service uniforms are required.

(4) Navy enlisted personnel will receive only one entitlement to this allowance during any one period of continuous assignment to such duty.

(5) Navy enlisted personnel who have received this allowance will not be authorized a subsequent allowance of the same items upon assignment to a new Marine Corps unit if less than 3 years have elapsed between assignments (i.e., there must be a 3-year break in service with the Marine Corps in order to receive a new Special Initial Service Uniform Allowance).

- 1/ Issued in conjunction with the other maternity items. However, these five items are issued only to those pregnant enlisted Marines who are required by their commanding officers to wear the utility uniform.

b. Authorizations and Restrictions

(1) Pregnant enlisted Marines who expect to remain in an active Reserve status beyond the time they can wear the service/utility uniform properly will be issued the maternity uniform allowance not more than once in a 36-month period. The 36-month period commences on the date of initial issuance of the maternity uniform allowance.

ENCLOSURE (5)

(2) Pregnant enlisted Marines are required to present to their commanding officer a certificate of pregnancy, signed by a proper medical officer, for entitlement to the maternity uniform supplementary allowance and for subsequent submission of form NAVMC 604b.

(3) Supplementary issues of maternity uniforms shall be recorded on form NAVMC 631A. Form NAVMC 631A and the certificate of pregnancy will then be filed in the unit supply office.

(4) Requisitions for all maternity uniform items will be prepared by the unit supply officer.

4. Special Initial Service Uniform Allowances--Navy Reserve Hospital Corpsmen, Dental Technicians, and Religious Program Specialists

a. Authorizations and Restrictions. Drilling Selected Naval Reserve hospital corpsmen, dental technicians, and religious program specialists on inactive duty assigned to Selected Marine Corps Reserve support (Program Nine/Five) units are authorized the special initial utility uniform allowance. These personnel will be given a 60-day option period in which to elect or not elect to wear Marine Corps service uniforms. This 60-day period begins upon the member reporting to the gaining command. Those who elect to wear and maintain Marine Corps service uniforms will be provided the special initial service uniform allowance. Navy personnel who receive the service uniform allowance will be required to wear these uniforms as directed for the duration of their continuous service with Marine Corps organizations and will abide by Marine Corps uniform and grooming regulations (MCO P1020.34). Those who elect not to wear the Marine Corps service uniforms will be provided the utility uniform allowance only, and when service uniforms are required, will wear Navy uniforms.

b. Authorized Allowances. The special initial service uniform allowances which may be furnished enlisted Reserve personnel of the Navy under the provisions of this Bulletin consist of the following items in the quantities indicated:
